

LIHWAP

Water Assistance Program

The Low-Income Household Water Assistance Program (LIHWAP) is a temporary emergency program to help low-income families pay overdue water bills.

Income Requirements

Household Size	Income Limit
1	Monthly $2,345
2	Monthly $3,067
3	Monthly $3,788
4	Monthly $4,510

Upper East Tennessee Human Development Agency (UETHDA) is the designated administering agency for LIHWAP in our region. Through LIHWAP, UETHDA works with area water utilities to help low-income households with their residential water bill. LIHWAP can help with:

- ◆ Disconnection or reconnection fees
- ◆ Threat of disconnection
- ◆ Past due and current bills

Assistance is based on a priority points system. If you are eligible for the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) you are eligible for LIHWAP.

Please note, this program's availability is limited in our area. Contact us to see if your water utility is participating.
