

Upper East Tennessee Human Development Agency (UETHDA) is a leading nonprofit providing EDUCATION, DIRECTION, AND SUPPORT to those living in poverty in the upper eight counties of Northeast Tennessee for over 50 years.

HELPING PEOPLE CHANGING LIVES in our community

Through specific programs, UETHDA assists individuals in overcoming poverty and grows them to become self-sufficient. We measure success in the positive changes that occur in people's lives because of what Community Action helped accomplish. Our services are proudly provided to Carter, Greene, Hancock, Hawkins, Johnson, Sullivan, Unicoi and Washington Counties.

We Offer

Neighborhood Services

A place to visit when you need assistance staffed by professionals who can help. Some of the programs available include: Rent/Mortgage, Housing Assistance, Education, Self-Sufficiency, Employment, Health and Income Management.

Head Start

A unique comprehensive early childhood education program, Head Start promotes the school readiness of children (ages 3-4) through agencies in their community.

LIHEAP

This program helps those struggling with their energy burden such as electricity, natural gas, propane, coal or wood.

Weatherization

The U.S. Department of Energy's Weatherization Assistance Program reduces energy costs for low-income households by increasing the energy efficiency of homes.

Your Money, Your Goals

Helps people meet their financial goals by increasing their knowledge, skills, and resources.

Education Program

This program provides financial aid to those wanting to attend school or continue their education. This includes the dual enrollment of high school students.
